

Ali'i Nui (High Chief).

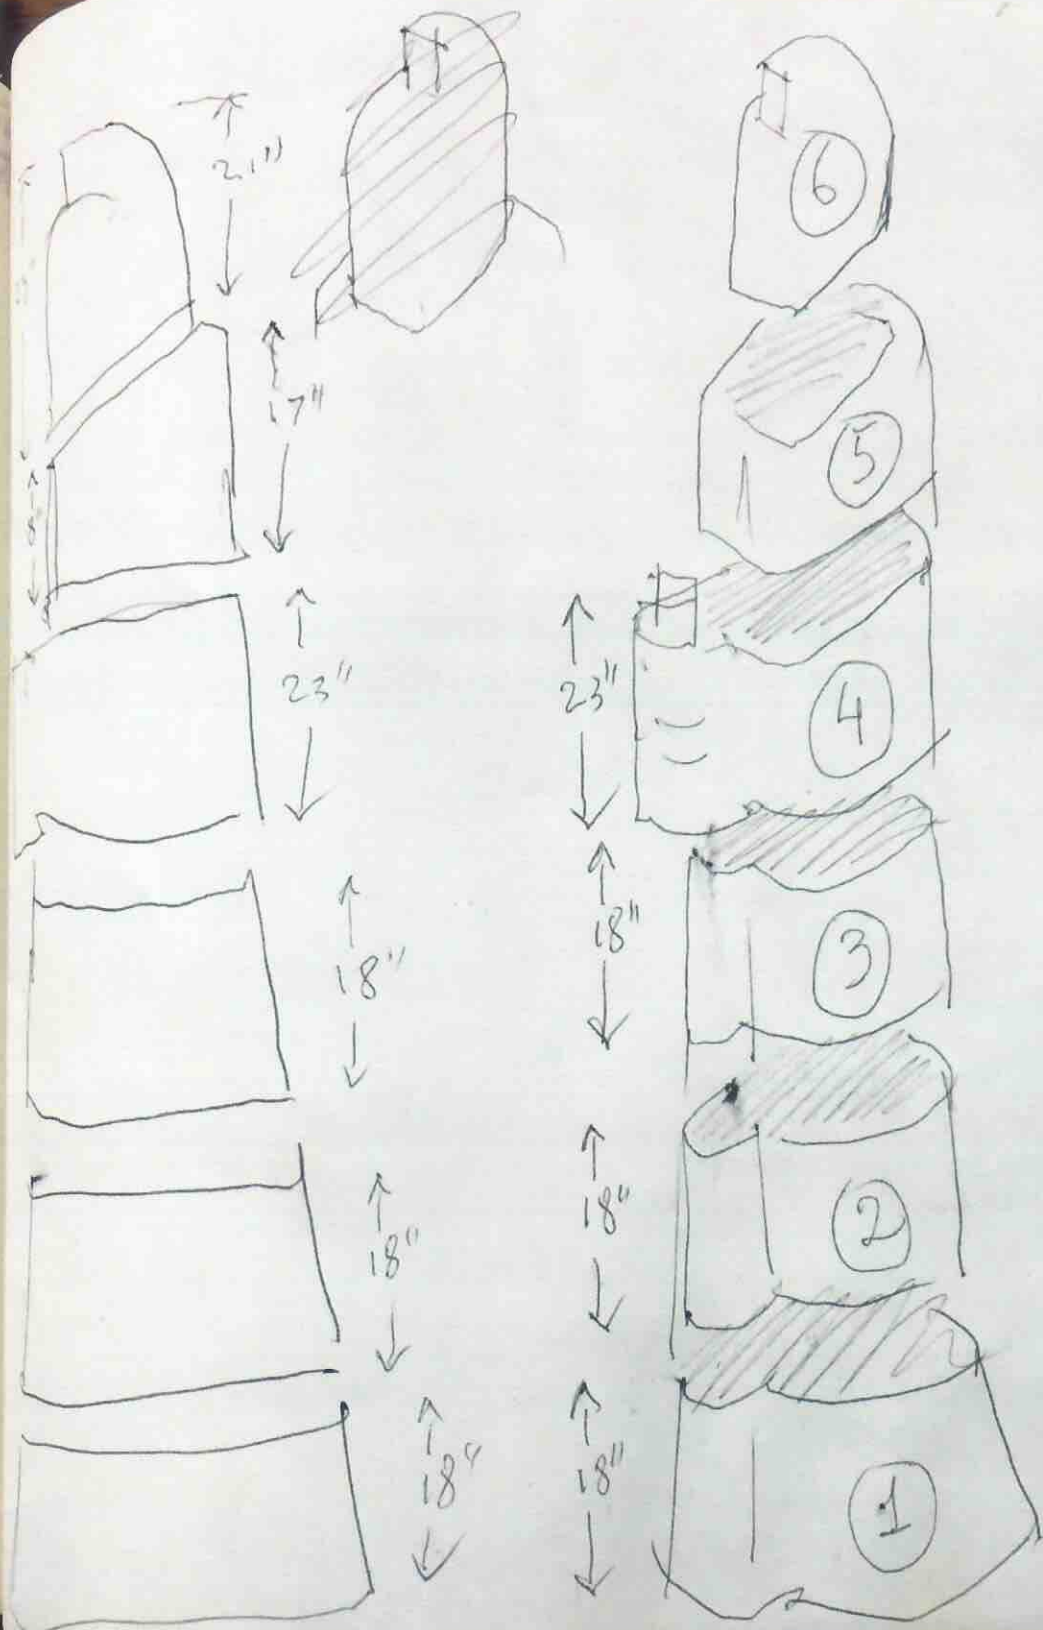

Jean Charlot. 1971. Ceramic sculpture. 9½ ft high. Ala Moana Hotel, Honolulu, Hawai'i.
(JCC: ART: MU 67)

This Presentation of Jean Charlot's 'Ali'i Nui' has been prepared by Docomomo US-Hawaii

All of the information and photographs in this Presentation are from the Jean Charlot Collection, Hamilton Library
University of Hawaii Manoa

June 25, 2018

self. for etching.

A page from one of Jean Charlot's sketch books, showing his early ideas about how 'Ali'i Nui' would be constructed. The page is not dated but adjacent pages are dated 1970.

Jean Charlot with full height sketches of 'Ali'i Nui'. The photo was probably taken at Charlot's home/studio on Kahala Avenue at Kealaolu Ave. The photo is not dated.

Jean Charlot working on 'Ali'i Nui' in the ceramic studio of Isami Enomoto.
The photo is not dated.

The day of dedication of 'Ali'i Nui' which is still covered before the unveiling.
Ala Moana Hotel at Atkinson Drive and Mahukona St.
August 28, 1971

Dedication of 'Ali'i Nui'

Left to right: Reverend Abraham K. Akaka, Jean Charlot, and Ronald S. Jeffrey, General Manager of the Ala Moana Hotel

August 28, 1971

Jean Charlot with 'Ali'i Nui'.
The photo is not dated.

'Ali'i Nui' in the garden of the Ala Moana Hotel
before removal.

Removing 'Ali'i Nui' from the Ala Moana Hotel.
August 25, 2005